

Radar systems Course Outcomes

At the end of the course a student will be able to:

CO1. Understand the basic principles of how a RADAR system works.

CO2. Identify the various RADAR systems in existence, specify their applications and limitations and explain the principles of how they work.

CO3. Describe the most commonly used techniques in processing RADAR signals.